Applicable Law

Any agreement to purchase Venue Industries products will be governed and controlled in all respects by the laws of the State of Florida, including interpretation, enforceability, validity, and construction, without regard to any conflict of law provisions. Under no circumstances will any agreement to purchase Venue Industries products, whether it involves a United States or foreign purchaser, be governed and controlled by any non-Florida laws and/or conventions. The parties submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the Circuit court for the county of Hillsborough, State of Florida with respect to any action arising, directly or indirectly, out of any agreement regarding the sale and purchase of Venue Industries products or the performance or breach of that agreement.

Agent's Authority

The Buyer understands and agrees that no agent or representative of Venue Industries has authority to bind Venue Industries to any affirmation, agreement, representation or warranty concerning the goods purchased from Venue Industries. The Buyer further understands and agrees that such affirmation of fact, promise, or representation made by any agent or representative of Venue Industries shall not constitute a warranty or agreement unless specifically approved in writing by an authorized officer of the company. Accepted orders will be acknowledged and the customer is responsible for immediately reviewing the acknowledgement and notifying a sales representative of Venue Industries, or Venue Industries Customer Service with any discrepancies.

Shipping Damage Claims

Shipping will be made via Venue Industries preferred carrier(s) unless customer carrier preference is indicated on purchase order. If the carrier indicated does not serve Venue Industries point of shipment, we will make shipment by most practical way. Truckload shipments are available via private carriers, or rail systems, at less than commercial carrier rates. Contact Venue Industries for quotation.
Venue Industries is not responsible for damage in transit, or delays in transit. Variances in order quantities or specifications must be communicated to Venuue Industries within 2 days of receipt of order. Any shortage, or sign of damage, should be noted on the freight bill before accepting delivery. If damage is discovered after delivery, purchasers should notify the carrier at once to request inspection and claim instructions. Concealed damage claims must be filed within 2 days of receipt of shipment.

Refusal to accept goods from the carrier does not relieve purchaser of responsibility for payment and filing claims in the prescribed manner. All goods become the property of the purchaser upon delivery to the carrier.

All additions/corrections/deletions (quantities, shipping addresses, finish, upholstery, etc.) must be supported by confirmation by the customer. Duplicate orders received and not properly marked "revised" are the responsibility of the customer. Return of duplicate orders will carry a 50% handling/ salvage charge and must be returned freight prepaid. All additions/corrections/deletions must be made prior to final scheduling or reworking charges will apply.

International Orders

All international orders are quoted F.O.B. factory. All freight, duties, value added taxes, broker fees, port charges and insurance are additional costs and will be the responsibility of the customer unless specific arrangements are made in writing for any additional services by Venuue Industries.

Cancellations/Changes

Orders cannot be cancelled or changed without approval from Venuue Industries. All requests for changes and cancellation must be submitted in writing; Customer is responsible for all costs incurred prior to Venuue Industries receiving cancellation/change; including laminate, upholstery, all other materials supplied, and labor associated with making the cancellation/change.

Customer Delayed Shipping

Venuue Industries production departments are organized on a throughput manufacturing philosophy. Delaying an order in process greatly impedes the production of other customer's orders. Storage/handling charges will be applied when a customer interrupts the production/shipping process to put an order on hold. All communications must be in writing. Charges will be calculated based on the square footage required to hold your order.

Delay

Venuue Industries shall not be liable for delays in performance caused by an act of God, fire or other casualty, accident, strike, shortage of labor or materials, governmental action or any other cause beyond their reasonable control, and the time for Venuue Industries' performance shall be extended by the period of such delay. Venuue Industries reserves the right to apportion its production among its customers as it may determine and any quoted delivery dates are estimated and are subject to change by Venuue Industries.

Venue Industries will make every effort to make on-time deliveries; however, we are not responsible for loss of revenue due to late delivery.

Match-Up Orders

If any order is to match a previous order, it must be clearly stated. Please supply the original invoice number and date. Note: Venue Industries cannot be responsible for materials discontinued by our supplier and/or dye lot variations. Also, due to improvements in manufacturing technology, it may be impractical to duplicate some discontinued designs.

Returns

DO NOT return merchandise without Return Authorization from Venue Industries. Return Authorizations are numbered, specify method of transportation, and include all shipping documents and labels. All Venue Industries products are manufactured to order through a "made to order" manufacturing system. This means items cannot be returned to stock. A standard handling/salvage charge of 50% of invoice will apply on all returned merchandise. A minimum handling/salvage charge of 25% of invoice will apply if 100% of returned merchandise can be applied to other orders in process at time of return.

Venue Industries certifies that goods are produced in compliance with Sections 6, 7 and 15 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended.

Care & Maintenance

To insure durability and longevity of the product, it is important to clean and care for the merchandise. It is also vitally important for the end user to:

- Check all stress points and connections, including welds, bolts, screws, rivets, brackets, etc., every 60 days.
- Check all points of attachment and tighten as needed (i.e., swivels, cushion-to-base, seat or back to frame etc.)

Cleaning and inspecting the product is part of standard maintenance and upkeep and should be done at regular intervals. If a defect is found, take the item out of service immediately and contact a Customer Satisfaction Coordinator at Venue Industries. Note: Warranty may be voided if proper maintenance procedures are not followed
